

Called to Pray

Colossians 1: 9-14

We continually ask God to fill _____ with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives, so that _____ may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that _____ may have great endurance and patience, and giving joyful thanks to the Father, who has qualified _____ to share in the inheritance of his holy people in the kingdom of light. For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Philippians 1:9

And this is my prayer: that _____'s love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that _____ may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Ephesians 3:15-21

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen _____ with power through his Spirit in _____'s inner being, so that Christ may dwell in _____'s heart through faith. And I pray that _____, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that _____ may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Ephesians 4:1,12-13

I pray _____ will live a life worthy of the calling _____ has received. May _____ be completely humble and gentle; patient, bearing with one another in love. May _____ make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. May you equip _____ for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Ephesians 4:29-32

Lord, I pray _____ does not let any unwholesome talk come out of _____ mouth, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. And that _____ does not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom _____ was sealed for the day of redemption. May _____ get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. May _____ be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave us.

Ephesians 1:17-19

I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give _____ the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that _____ may know him better. I pray that the eyes of _____'s heart may be enlightened in order that _____ may know the hope to which he has called _____, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, and his incomparably great power for us who believe.

Colossians 3:12-17

Therefore, as God's chosen, holy and dearly loved, may _____ clothe themselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. May _____ bear with others and forgive one another if _____ has a grievance against someone and forgive as the Lord forgave us. And over all these virtues, may _____ put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in _____ heart, since as members of one body we are called to peace. May _____ be thankful. Let the message of Christ dwell among _____ richly as we teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in our hearts. And whatever _____ does, whether in word or deed, may _____ do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

1 Thessalonians 5:14-23

I pray _____ will encourage the disheartened, help the weak, be patient with everyone. May _____ never pay back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else. May _____ rejoice always, pray continually, and give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for _____ in Christ Jesus. I pray _____ does not quench the Spirit or treat prophecies with contempt, but tests them all; holding on to what is good, rejecting every kind of evil. May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify _____ through and through. May _____'s whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 3:5

May the Lord direct _____'s heart to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, encourage ____'s heart and strengthen ____ in every good deed and word.

Hebrews 12:1-3

Since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let ____ throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let ____ run with perseverance the race marked out for ____, fixing ____ eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. May ____ consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that ____ will not grow weary and lose heart.

Hebrews 13:20-21

Now may the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, equip ____ with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in ____ what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
